The NHCBA, in collaboration with the New Haven Superior Court Clerk's Office, is pleased to offer for a fourth year this lunchtime series open to all attorneys, paralegals and other legal staff:

Clerks of the Court Seminar Series

An exciting and informative series of meetings that will feature many of the local clerks, who will provide insight into their various areas of expertise.

The series will provide an opportunity to:

- ◆ Put a face with a name
- ◆ Learn more about specific forms and filing procedures
- ◆ Be alerted to new developments
- ◆ Clarify deadlines and other requirements
- ◆ Understand what the Clerk's Office expects from you
- ◆ Have a chance to ask those questions and resolve confusing issues that seem to linger in your office.

FEATURING ...

- Use of Pseudonyms in Pleadings (September 3)
(Featuring Louis Fagnani, Deputy Chief Clerk, New Haven Superior Court, and Giovanni Spennato, Court Officer, New Haven Superior Court)
- Civil Default Procedures (September 23)
- Appellate Court (Fall TBA)

All programs will be from 1:00pm to 2:00pm in the NHCBA's Lawyer's Lounge, 7th Floor, Superior Court, 235 Church St., New Haven. Pizza & soda included. Advance reservations strongly urged. Dates subject to change. Individual seminar details, including list of speakers, can be found at www.newhavenbar.org.
